BLOW IS AIMED AT EVADING OF OHIO DRY LAWS

Legislature Will Be Asked
To Amend the Crabbe Act.

PROGRAM OUTLINED

Dry Leaders in Conference
At Columbus Arrange Plans.

Columbus, O., Dec. 15.—The state legislature this winter will be asked to amend the Crabbe prohibition enforcement act so as to more effectively curb the use of alcoholic patent medicines as beverages. The legislators also, will be urged to enact a law providing for a state prohibition enforcement department.

The dry legislative program was brought to light at the state wide conference here of dry leaders.

Attorney Wayne B. Wheeler, Washington, D. C., general counsel for the anti-saloon league of America, urged that Ohio's outlaw law be employed, if necessary, to insure action in enforcing prohibition laws. Officials who are lax in enforcing the law should be relieved of office, he declared.

James A. White, superintendent of the Ohio anti-saloon league and manager of the Ohio dry federation, stated that county managers of the federation will soon call county meetings for the purpose of forming prohibition enforcement leagues. These leagues, it is planned, will have an executive committee, ward, precinct and township committees. The members will co-operate with police officials and prosecutors.

"The prohibition reform is about ten years in the making," declared National Prohibition Commissioner John F. Kramer, addressing the conference. "Most reforms have dealt with natural appetites of men. This one has to do with an acquired appetite which can be got rid of. All we need is patience."

Although Kramer is a Democrat, Rev. H. H. Hessel, founder of the anti-saloon league, himself, a Republican, announced he will ask the next collector of internal revenue to retain Kramer.

THIRTY MILE GALE SWEEPS OVER GREAT LAKES REGION

Grain Boats May Have Been Caught It Is Believed.

Winnipeg, Man., Dec. 15.—Reports early today from Port Arthur and Port Arthur, Ont., bring word that a blinding snowstorm, that swept across the upper Great Lakes last night is still blowing. Thirty grain boats carrying cargoes of 5,000,000 bushels left these two ports Sunday. Not all of them, it is feared today, may have reached shelter. Four of the fleet have returned to Port Arthur. Fourteen have reached the shelter of White Fish point at the lower end of Lake Superior. Although no word has been received from the others by wireless reports today failed to discover any boats in danger.

OHIO STATE GRANGE HUSBANDRY PATRONS TO RAISE A MILLION

Need Sum To Finance
System Of Co-operative
Grain Elevators

Cleveland, Dec. 15.—Endorsement of a project to raise $1,000,000 to finance the system of co-operative grain elevators owned by Ohio farmers is expected at today's session of the Ohio State Grange, patrons of husbandry, now in session at Gray's Armory. While the grange itself would not own stock in the enterprise, its approval, it is thought by state leaders, would make the financing of the plan easy.

Taxation and legislative matters also will receive attention from the big farmers' gathering, the remainder of the session being taken up with the conferring of degrees.

The sessions of the convention will continue all through tomorrow.

GLIMPSES IN CORK, WHERE FIRE SWEEPED BUSINESS CENTER

Cork, which recently suffered a $7,000,000 property loss from a fire which followed the ambushing of British soldiers, contains some of the finest buildings in Ireland. The city hall which is reported to have been destroyed by the conflagration is not in center of the city, but stands near Parnell bridge. The fire reported as sweeping from Cook to Maylor streets, thence to Patrick street, down Winthrop street to old George street, attacked spacious thoroughfares—Patrick street alone is 120 feet wide and connects with the Grand Parade, which is tree lined and 160 feet wide.

OHIO SUPPORTS HER POSITION ON RATE RAISE

State Railroad Commission Presents Argument.

OTHER STATES THERE

Question Authority Of Interstate Commerce Commission.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Representatives of the railroad commissions of Ohio and Michigan, spokesmen for shipping interests of those states today presented arguments before the interstate commerce commission in support of the action of the two state commissions, in refusing to put the interstate passenger and freight rates in Ohio and Michigan upon a level to meet authorized increases established in interstate commerce. Counsel for the carriers were to offer arguments in rebuttal late today. Ohio and Michigan attorneys followed counsel in arguments somewhat similar, presented on behalf of Utah, Illinois, Florida and Nebraska, in the two preceding days, in the investigation of the rate controversy between the states and the interstate body.

Ohio and Michigan attorneys both contended that no authority is given the interstate commerce commission by existing statutes to take arbitrary action upon the state rates, by simply directing a percentage increase on all rates and without distinction as to the specified commodities on which discrimination might be possible. State railroad commissions, it was argued, by establishing lower basic fares and freight rates, than are authorized by interstate commerce for the same territory are not promulgating orders that can be held unlawful.

Emphatic denial was given by these representatives that the course of the state railroad commissions, in fixing lower state rates have not unduly discriminated against interstate traffic, shippers or localities. In briefs submitted it was set forth that the state commissions do not interpret the commerce clause of federal constitution to require that interstate traffic should be preferred, but should be given equal consideration with intra-state traffic.

LEGISLATIVE CAUCUSES AT COLUMBUS WILL SELECT SPEAKER AND HOUSE FLOOR LEADER

R. R. Beetham, of Cadiz, Touted For Speaker and C. C. Crabbe, of London, Heads List for Floor Leader On Wednesday.

Columbus, O., Dec. 15.—Two legislative caucuses will be held here this afternoon. The Republican majority members in the house are expected to select State Rep. R. R. Beetham, of Cadiz, for speaker and State Rep. C. C. Crabbe, of London, for speaker pro tem and majority floor leader. Captain John Maynard, Lima, it is believed, will be re-elected house clerk. Other officials and employees in the house are to be chosen.

The 11 Democrats in the house are to caucus. It is expected they will designate State Rep. H. S. Atkinson, Columbus, as their choice for speaker. It being impossible for him to be elected speaker, Atkinson then would become minority floor leader.

GOVERNMENT UNABLE TO CHECK PROFITEERING OF COAL SPECULATORS

Department Of Justice Admits Impotence In Matter.

DEFY ATTORNEY GEN.

Court Decisions On Lever
Law Block Activity of Department.

Washington, Dec. 15.—Coal speculators, chief factors in anthracite and bituminous coal profiteering, continue to ply their trade in defiance of Attorney General Palmer and all federal prosecutors who attempt to check abuses.

The impotence of the department of justice to remedy conditions made the basis for Senator Calder's attack upon the attorney was freely admitted today by the attorney general and his advisers. The attorney general will not reply directly to Senator Calder. The senator's charges that coal profiteering goes on despite the attorney general's efforts is admitted by the department of justice to be true but officials are quick to explain that vigorous criminal procedure by the department has been virtually blocked by court decisions holding the Lever law invalid.

Pressed for explanation of continued abuses in the coal trade, the department of justice today revealing that in some large producing districts, coal operators have openly defied the attorney general and his agents by refusal to produce their books and records.

A report on coal profiteering, prepared for congress, under the attorney general's direction, states that in five of the ten principal coal producing states, comprising Indiana, Colorado, Western Kentucky, Pennsylvania and Missouri, prosecutions under the Lever law have been prevented by decisions of the U. S. District courts, declaring the law is not constitutional.

In Tennessee, Palmer reports fifteen soft coal operators were arrested and held for the grand jury but gained freedom from further prosecution by virtue of an order by the federal district court enjoining enforcement of the Lever act. The Lever act, it was said, is the only enactment under which it has been possible to proceed in coal cases. No attempts have been made to hale operators before the courts under the anti-trust laws on charges of combinations in restraint of trade.

REVOLUTIONISTS INVADE YUCATAN

Vera Cruz, Dec. 15.—Three thousand well armed revolutionaries, alleged by the government to be bolsheviks have invaded the state of Campeche from Yucatan and are attempting to drive out the federal authorities according to information received here today. The invaders are reported to be cutting railroads and telegraph lines and looting property.

FEMINISM MAKES HEAVY INROADS INTO SESSIONS OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Geneva, Dec. 15.—Feminism has made heavy inroads into the league of nations despite the fact that many of the nation members have not approved suffrage.

In the center of the assembly hall, on the bench of the Swedish delegation sits Mrs. Bugge-Wicksell, substitute delegate. She wears a dark brown robe, with white sleeves, and no hat. Although not called upon to address a plenary session of the assembly she works as hard as any of the male delegates, taking notes and following the proceedings with the greatest interest. She was particularly interested in the debate upon the "white slave traffic yesterday. Beside Mrs. Bugge-Wicksell sits a pretty young girl, her secretary.

The Norwegian delegation has another woman substitute. On the French bench beside M. Hanotaux sits a young woman secretary. She makes copious notes and engages in long whispered conversations with M. Hanotaux, M. Bourgeois and M. Viviani. Behind the rostrum occupied by President Paul Hymans are six girls—stenographers and secretaries. Their dresses lend about the only color to the daily meetings and two of them wear skirts short enough for the Due De La Paix.

SOVIET RUSSIA PROBLEM GIVEN RIGHT OF WAY

Conference at Marion Goes Into Problems of That Country.

TO MAKE SURVEY

Harding To Tackle Work of Going Over Government Departments.

Marion, O., Dec. 15.—The affairs of soviet Russia took precedence over other international questions in Senator Harding's conference today. Colonel Raymond Robbins of Chicago, headed the list of men scheduled to confer with the president-elect before the day was over. Colonel Robbins was chief of the American commission which went to Russia in 1918 and he is thoroughly conversant with the start of the soviet movement.

He was able, it is said, to lay before Senator Harding not only an accurate outline of the personalities and policies of the soviet leaders, but an authoritative opinion as to the possibilities and aspirations of the great mass of Russian peasants.

It became known today that Senator Harding has decided to appoint a commission to make a complete survey of the various departments of the government. This body he plans to have investigate and make recommendations with regard to the curtailment or elimination of bureaus or divisions found to be unnecessary. They will also advise in what degree working forces and expenditures in remaining departments may be cut down.

To Meet Pledges.
This plan, it was said, was developed to meet pledges made by the president-elect during the campaign for economy in the running of the government. It is understood that Senator Harding will ask each of the men to whom he tenders cabinet positions to follow the recommendations of the efficiency commission.

The personnel of the commission is not yet determined. It will probably include some of the most prominent engineers, executives and managers in the United States. Charles M. Schwab, James B. Forgan, Chicago banker; Samuel Vauclain, of the Baldwin Locomotive works and others are mentioned as possible appointees.

Renewed speculation was aroused today by the declaration of Senator Harding that while he did not care to discuss the plan made public by Colonel George Harvey for an association of nations, pledged to a referendum on war, "it was a big thing."

Senator Harding made it plain that the proposal should not be regarded the plans of Colonel Harvey only. He said Harvey simply happened to be instrumental in making it public. This statement led to speculation here as to whether the plan might or might not be designated as the tentative plan of the president-elect himself.

Senator Harding, however, declined any comment touching on the subject, except to reiterate that the conferences had been very helpful and that the finding of a middle ground in international affairs did not seem to be so difficult as many people supposed.

Senator Harding will make a brief address here tonight at the meeting of the Ohio Conference on Child Conservation.

SLIGHT OUTBREAK REPORTED IN CITY OF CORK WEDNESDAY

Residents Of Fire-Ruined
Town Terrified By New Trouble.

Cork, Dec. 15.—The residents of this fire ruined and bullet swept city were thrown into panic today by a heavy fusillade of shots and bomb explosions.

Many persons, fearing that another conflagration would sweep the unburned section of the city, rushed from their beds to the streets.

There was heavy rifle firing in the southern part of the city. "Battlefield" with rifle bullet crashing into the houses.

No casualties were reported. Lord Mayor O'Callaghan has cabled to the United States asking for relief. He suggested that a contingent of the American red cross come to Cork to administer assistance to the homeless.

POLICE ARREST ONE OF GANG OF TRAIN ROBBERS

Man Confesses To Part In
$3,500,000 Robbery In West.

Says Des Moines Business Man Was "Brains" Of the Gang.

Chicago, Dec. 15.—Edward Valentine was arrested here today and confessed the police declare, that he and seven other men committed the spectacular $3,500,000 mail train robbery on the Burlington railroad between Omaha and Council Bluffs three weeks before Thanksgiving. Miss Hazel Grubbs, of Indianapolis, who was with Valentine at the time of his arrest is held by the police.

Valentine's confession according to Chief of Detectives Michael Hughes, named a prominent business man of Des Moines, Ia., as the "brains" of the robber gang. This man, Valentine is alleged to have said, took no part in the actual hold up.

A woman, the sweetheart of one of the bandits, Valentine is reported to have said, sat in the robbers auto while he and seven others were tossing the mail sacks containing the loot into the machine.

The plunder, Valentine said, consisted of $900,000 in currency and the balance in government bonds. Valentine had two of the bonds in his possession when captured according to Chief Hughes.

Three railroad employees who are alleged to have supplied the robbers with information indicating the mail sacks that contained the bonds and currency were implicated by Valentine, the police declare.

Valentine declared that the Grubbs girl was not involved in the robbery but said he met her at Indianapolis after he had fled from the scene of the robbery.

Valentine gave his age as 31 and home is in Akron, Ohio.

INSTANTLY KILLED WHEN STRUCK BY TRUCK, WEDNESDAY

George Parsons Of Yellow Springs Victim Of Mishap.

George Parsons, 69, of Yellow Springs was instantly killed on the road north of that village near Glen Forest Cemetery at 5:30, Wednesday morning, when he was struck by a broad truck owned by the Cottage Bakery of Springfield.

Parsons, who was an employee at Whitehall, the E. S. Kelly farm north of Yellow Springs, was returning from the farm to his home on Whiteman street, Yellow Springs, when the accident happened. The driver of the truck, whose name was not learned by Yellow Springs authorities, said that it was still dark when the accident happened, but that he saw the man walking along the road towards the village, and sounded his horn as a warning. He alleged that as he neared the man he turned his machine to one side, but that Parsons stepped out into the middle of the road and directly in the path of the truck. The machine was coming down from Springfield to deliver bread to Yellow Springs groceries.

The truck driver brought Dr. L. L. Taylor of Yellow Springs to the scene, but the man was dead when picked up, having died instantly. His injuries were confined to the head and it is believed he sustained a fractured skull, which caused his death. Coroner R. L. Hayes was notified immediately and he viewed the body at the Little Sons undertaking establishment at Yellow Springs Wednesday morning.

Parsons was married and is survived by his wife, two sons, Roy of Yellow Springs, who is also an employee at Whitehall and Jerry of Dayton, and a daughter, Mrs. Flossie Marmat of western Canada. Two brothers, James of Phoneton, Ohio and William of Missouri, also survive. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

RAIL PROPOSAL SAID TO BE "STEAL"

Washington, Dec. 15.—The proposal of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad to divide among its stockholders in the form of dividends and capital stock $140,000,000 cash from its surplus funds, is "one of the greatest steals from the shipping public ever attempted in the history of American railroading," it was charged today before the Interstate Commerce Commission by Hugh L. Masters, assistant attorney general of Nebraska.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAMS PLAY TUESDAY

A team of first team substitutes defeated the High School second team 12-11 and the Freshmen and Sophomore girls team defeated the Junior and Senior girls 5-1 in two games played preliminary to the High School-Bellbrook game at the rink Tuesday night.

The girls games was an innovation in athletics at Central High School, and represents the first example of the effort being made to give girls the same advantage in sports as the boys in school. The class teams are believed to be the forerunner of a regular school team of girls and it is believed that that form of sport will become as popular as the games in which the boys participate. Practically every school in the country has boasted of a girls basketball team for some time.

Only two field goals were tossed in the game Tuesday night, the Freshmen and Sophomore girls annexing both of these counters and one foul shot. A free throw was best the Junior Senior sextette could accomplish. The lineup and summary:

Fresh-Sophs (5) Juniors-Sen. (1)
McPadden lf Loyd
Wike rf Chambliss

The boys' game showed considerable more action, was close at all times. The first half ended 9-3 in favor of the first team substitutes but the second string club forged forward in the final period, crowding the leaders until the last minute. The lineup and summary:

After shooting Arnold the officer sent him to the hospital but brought two of his companions to headquarters.

FIREMAN INJURED IN DAYTON FIRE

Dayton, O., Dec. 15.—Fire starting in a pile of nitrate began in the Dayton Bag and Burlap company's plant this morning destroyed the three story building, stock and machinery to the extent of $3,000. In making a run to the fire, a truck collided with a Green Line street car in the center of the city, throwing the firemen from the machine, wrecking it and seriously internally injuring Capt. Clinton Hills. The destroyed plant was the property of David and Sam Fenn.

CREAMS AND ASTRINGENTS

Paris, November 10, 1920. I had an opportunity today to go through a little factory where some of the most expensive cold cream that is sold in Paris, is manufactured. I would not particularly like to work in this place, for the atmosphere is a bit hot and steamy and though it smells deliciously of perfume, it makes one long for the damp freshness of the outdoors air.

In the larger places at home where cold creams are manufactured, there are enormous copper and porcelain cauldrons automatically supplied with pumps and pipes and thermometers so that the correct amount may be added at just the proper temperature and time. But in this little place the work is done by hand, and though the greatest care is taken, the results depend upon the individual efforts of the workers rather than upon the perfect machinery of the plant.

The proprietor generously gave me a beautiful jar of the cream. It was very slightly green in tint and smelled deliciously of olives. It was, he told me, made of pure olive oil, from the sunny side, that is the southern side, of the Italian hills, where the most delicious olives grow. Wax and spermaceti of course were included; benzoin and alum and borax to make the cream astringent. In fact, except that he has a very special process of perfuming and coloring his cream, it is very much like the fine cold cream, the formula of which many of my readers have secured from me.

The French women use a great deal of cold cream, much more than their American sisters, and they use a great many astringents. I am more and more impressed with the fact that if a woman possess only these two, she would need nothing more in the way of cosmetics. The French women, of course, use astringent creams and lotions that come in bottles. They might if they chose, get equally good results by making use of ice; but the average woman prefers her beauty aids to come from the painted and be-ribboned bottles one sees in all the window displays. She does not particularly approve of fresh air and she never walks if she can possibly help it. She will promenade in fashionable places at fashionable hours, or she will ride. Walking, to her, is not a beauty exercise.

M. S.—No one could reduce by drinking four glasses of hot water a day, unless she eliminated some food and drank the water in place of it.

Worried—If your husband is turning gray so young, there must be something wrong with the scalp. I would advise him to have the hair treated if possible. If you will send me a letter with a self-addressed, stamped envelope enclosed, I will send you a formula for a pilocarpine hair tonic which will help prevent those early gray hairs.

BLACKSMITH ADVERTISES FOR WIFE "PERFECT OTHER THAN THIRTY SIX"

Battle Creek, Mich., Dec. 15.—There's a premium in Battle Creek on cards distributed at a recent church service by A. J. Dolly, blacksmith, who, according to the pasteboards, is seeking a "perfect other-than-thirty-six." Only 500 cards were printed and the holders are conceded by popular opinion to prize them highly. Dolly prefaces his unique "advertisement" for a new model, 1920 wife, with the scriptural quotation: "It is not good for man to live alone. I will make him a helpmeet." The remainder of the card space gives the following requirements for any applicant for the sharing of Dolly's life:

"A good Christian woman about thirty-five years of age; five feet, four; who is interested in missions, moral reform, jail visiting and physical culture. "No high heels, transparent clothes or medicine chest wanted. Good proof of character required." Dolly completes his appeal with a description of his own virtues. He acknowledges a divorced wife and several children.

WOMAN OVER EIGHTY YEARS OLD TAKES TO SWIMMING LIKE MERMAID

Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 15 — Mrs. Eliza Steiner Eisenbeis, of Marshall avenue, Northside, this city, is probably the oldest woman swimmer in the country. She is more than eighty years old.

Four years ago marked her entrance into the swimming world. She could just paddle around a little at that time. But swimming fascinated her and she soon became an expert.

Last winter she walked a mile to a swimming pool and missed but one night during the whole winter. One evening the class lacked its usual enthusiasm and spirit. The deficiency was traced to the absence of the spry old lady. Inquiry at her home brought the answer that there was a dinner and euchre at a friends house she did not care to miss. Until last year she was president of the athletic club at the McNaughton school. She declares she will continue her swimming this winter.

The rouge, short skirts and low-neck dresses of today are no worse than the trains, hoops and bustles, wigs and patches of yesterday, according to Mrs. Eisenbeis. "I am firmly convinced that the younger generation will come out all right in the end," she said. "My but we were the wild ones," she concluded.

OHIO FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

By Mrs. George Elliott McCormick

Volunteer Service Bureaus

"Why not a volunteer service bureau in every town?" asks Mrs. J. H. Schermerhorn, second vice president of the General federation, in outlining her plans to interest clubwomen in this project and also to make some investigation of what clubwomen are doing in the way of conducting or assisting employment agencies for women. Mrs. Schermerhorn, whose address is No. 11, Halstead place, East Orange, New Jersey, asks that any states or clubs having information to give for them to forward it at once. In urging establishment of bureaus, she declares:

"There is first a campaign of publicity during which every club and other group is informed that there is a place where women can register for social service. Every one who comes to register has a personal interview with a trained social worker, who knows the community and can talk over with the volunteer all the opportunities of the locality and her own special fitness for one or another form of service. For those who wish training, special classes are organized. Each applicant is given some field work under a superintendent teacher, she then comes back to the bureau and is assigned to do special work in connection with a social agency. A record is kept on a special card for her experience, what she has done, her successes. The agency with which she works must report on her connection with it. No one is allowed to do less than one-half day weekly of case work or less than one period of group work, less than the service become to amateurs the community all agencies needing special help apply. For instance, the visiting nurses want home visitors for their chronic invalids and the blind society wants some one to read and talk or give craft lessons on the shut ins."

Ohio Federation Notes
Mrs. William H. Sharp, president of the Ohio federation heartily endorses the "winter fly" swatting movement recently launched by the Merchants' association in New York City. This campaign is carried on with the following as its slogan: "One pair of flies swatted now will avert the possible plague of 324,000,000,000 potential descendants next autumn."

The Marion federation has grown so that it is to become a county affair. It will be known as the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs.

The Woman's club at Bellaire is a civic organization. Every year it accomplishes some definite piece of work for the city. Last year it secured collection of garbage for the people. This club always has helped in clean-up week. It also backs the Red Cross drive. The Woman's Club at Shadyside, near Bellaire, has set aside $100 for the beginning of a community house fund, the building to be a memorial to the World War dead in that vicinity. The club has also given $100 to the child welfare fund. It supports a community nurse paid clean-up day bills, donated plants and flowers for beautifying the school house grounds and $25 for fire department equipment.

The Cambridge federation is wide awake. The Katch-A-Koo entertainment netted $551. A traveling basket at different times brought in $390.27. A traveling basket goes from house to house. For everything taken out of it a price is paid and something donated to take its place. A donation of $314.06 was made by the club to the American Legion, $400 for new books at the public library, $340 to the high school for a new motion picture machine, $50 to the grades for supplementary reading, $20 to the state Scholarship fund, $90 as month's month's salary of sanitary policeman, and $1,100 to the Salvation Army. The Club sold the tickets for the Chautauqua and the Christmas seals. Fifty press chairman from the various federated clubs in the Los Angeles district are enrolled in a federation school of journalism. California probably has the distinction of being the first to introduce this feature or the advancement of club work.

MERRY CHRISTMAS, BUT—

ALL MEN ARE LIARS.

We sit around at eventime, and tranquilly we lie, and tell of how our cars can climb stupendous hills on high. We used to be a truthful lot before the auto came; we used to ween and wist and wot that falsehood was a shame. And when from fishing trips returned we stretched the truth a yard, our conscience like a bonfire burned, and scorched us pretty hard. But that was in a time gone by, a time that's vague, remote; and now we sit around and lie, each of his old tin boat. And when we to our beds repair, some alto snores to spring, does conscience, while we're lying there make night a solemn thing? Does she point out that falsehood's wrong? She tries that stunt no more; we've lied so much, we've lied so long, that conscience is a bore. Our old tin cars are red with rust, they're long since out of style, and something's always sure to bust before they go a mile. We're always tinkering with tools, o'er motors broken down, and hiring farmers with their mules, to haul us back to town. But when we smoke our evening pipes the fiction graft prevails, and Ananias has the gripes if he can hear our tales. And so we sit beside the sea, and tranquilly we lie, of how our autos climbed a tree, and did the trick on high.

HOW IT COMES THAT HARDING IS SO INTIMATE WITH JOHN R. McLEAN'S SON.

Social circles in Washington, as well as political, have had an absorbing subject of gossip recently over the revealed intimacy and close friendship existing between President-elect Harding and Mrs. Harding and the McLean's, Washington millionaires and social leaders. Shortly after election, when it was announced at Marion that Edward B. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post and Cincinnati Enquirer, and Evelyn Walsh McLean, his wife, and daughter of the late Senator Thomas F. Walsh of Colorado, many times a millionaire, had been invited to make the trip to Point Isabel, Tex., and Panama with the President-to-be, Washington society began to rub its eyes. It began to vision the social leaders of the new administration and many were the heart burnings of the socially ambitious over the marked friendship being displayed for the McLeans by the future occupants of the White House.

But when the Hardings, returning from Panama, went to the beautiful McLean home for their three days' stay and Senator Harding held many of his important conferences with senators and other statesmen there—well, society had its 10-day sensation. Now there were no less than fifty Washingtonians with beautiful homes and keen social ambitions who would have given some years of their lives to have had the social distinction of entertaining the future President and have it said that the important league and cabinet conferences were held under the roof of their abitat. And when Mrs. Harding went to the capitol to hear her husband deliver his valedictory address to the senate—the first time a senator had spoken in that historic chamber as President-elect—and she took with her Mrs. McLean and her own secretary during the campaign, Miss Kathleen Lawler, it was a day of envy for other Washingtonian dowagers.

When and how did the McLeans get so "close in?" society began to ask. And it is still asking the question and answering it in a dozen different ways.

The elder John R. McLean, young McLean's father, always was a friend of Senator Harding politically. The Enquirer supported Harding in several campaigns in his early political fights. When the Hardings came to Washington, Ned McLean and Mrs. McLean took up the senator and his wife, and while the Hardings never were society "wild," there was quite a little visiting back and forth—no more, perhaps, than the Hardings enjoyed with others in their wide circle of friends, however.

The Post and the Enquirer both are powerful papers, especially the Washington daily, because it is read by congress. When the opposition to the Wilson league began, the senate leaders knew they were embarking on a desperate struggle. Apparently the country was united behind the Wilson program, and opposition to any phase of what the President proposed almost was heresy. Newspaper support was needed badly.

In a way, the Post, McLean's newspaper, reflected the senate group's sentiment as Colonel Harvey's weekly did. Of course, there were many newspapers potent in the league fight, but the Post, being so widely read by congress, was much in the spotlight. Later, the same senatorial group played the major part in Harding's nomination and McLean was in on it. So politically he rode along to the top with the senate group.

Harding and the young millionaire publisher were thrown much together in the league fight and the intimacy continued after the nomination. And Harding has rewarded the friendship and support displayed for him by McLean by taking him "inside" the circle in the fashion that has so keenly set all Washington society to talking.

ARBITRATION BRINGS PEACE IN CLEVELAND GARMENT INDUSTRY.

The principle of arbitration in settlement of industrial relations is emphasized in a decision just announced by the referees, who represent the public, in dealings between workers and manufacturers in the women's garment industry of Cleveland.

The decision provides that wages of the 7,000 workers in the industry remain unchanged, and that the installation of a scientific system for measuring production shall be established as promptly as practicable. The decision affects thirty-five large manufacturers of women's garments, and has received approval of both workers and manufacturers. The steps which led to the decision were brought out by a request from the workers for an increase in wages and a counter request by manufacturers for a decrease.

The Cleveland Garment Manufacturers' Association and the Cleveland branches of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union have operated for some time under an agreement which provides for the amicable adjustment of differences.

The position of the manufacturers in the arbitration proceedings was stated as being that employers felt that if wages were reduced to give a lower unit cost in the present time of falling prices, more garments could be produced and in the end the workers' income accordingly would be increased.

The position of the workers was that the unit production cost and the selling price of garments could be reduced without reducing wages, and that standards of production now being established in the industry would help to attain this end.

The arbitration proceedings drew national attention because of abnormal conditions in industry. The decision is regarded by leaders of both sides as being a factor in stabilizing industrial affairs and as one which distinctly sets out the spirit of co-operation prevailing in the Cleveland garment industry. The arbitration has set an example for the rest of the country, and it emphasizes the importance of fair and accurate standards of production and wages at this time.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

T. C. James is now taking his rest until the first of year, his holiday trade having been the best for several years. His grade in the city was splendid and adjoining towns in the county also, and one Jamestown firm, Jenkins and Turnbull purchased from him two tons of candy.

The new furnace at the Spring Hill School house has arrived and will be soon put in place.

Mr. John Reynolds of West Main street left this morning for Ironton, and will be one of the foremen of the C. H. and D. who will go on a tour of inspection over the road. The freight traffic on the railroad is extremely heavy just now and the Pan Handle yard men are having their hands full keeping the tracks free from a blockade. A great deal of grain is on the move, and the holiday season contributes to the general rush.

DEMPSEY KNOCKS OUT BRENNAN IN 12 ROUNDS

New York, Dec. 15.—Jack Dempsey has the fight fans in the midst of a catch as catch can guessing contest today.

Jack is still the world's champion and $100,000 richer as a result of his 12 round knock out victory over Bill Brennan. He is also the latest thing in puzzles.

The showing of the champion against Brennan was a big surprise. When they met before Dempsey won in six rounds. Last night Brennan stood up twice as long and gave the champion a hammer and tong sort of fight that won the plaudits of some 13,000 fight fans away from the title holder.

What the fight fans want to know is: How come?

Jack Kearns, manager of the champion said after the bout that Dempsey was a bit too finely drawn. He looked it, at that, and he was nervous as a race horse while he posed with Brennan for the cameramen, his legs atremble as he stood facing the Chicagoan. He did not look like the same old Dempsey.

Throughout the 12 rounds it appeared to some at the ringside that Dempsey failed to take advantage of openings. Some whispered that maybe he was busy making a good movie of the bout. Pictures will be worth a lot of money in New York state. The average man who saw the fight however is willing to admit today that Brennan gave the champion the battle of his life and that Dempsey did a big night's work in knocking him out.

HOTEL PROPRIETOR GETS STIFF FINE ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Paul Edwards, colored, East Main street hotel proprietor and operator of a "soft drink" stand was fined $500 and costs by Judge E. D. Smith, in Police Court Wednesday morning on a charge of selling intoxicating beverages in violation of the Volstead Prohibition Act.

The arrest was made on affidavits sworn out by Ollie Downard, 25, and Robert Johnson, 20, both of Allen town, Ohio, who were arrested Tuesday afternoon, and charged with being intoxicated, and who were fined $5 and costs apiece in Police Court Wednesday morning. Several cases of potent medicine, and beverages containing a high percentage of alcohol were seized by the police and are being held at police headquarters as evidence in the case.

Johnson was arrested about 3:30 o'clock after he had been ordered out of the Hustmyer billiard hall on West Main street. Waving his hand in imitation of a hypnotist in front of Frank L. Hustmyer, proprietor of the billiard hall, Johnson said "Now see what you turn into." Motorcycle Policeman Clark Stethem had to call Dr. H. C. Messenger to administer a hypodermic before the man could be arrested and five men were hardly able to hold him when the physician used the needle. After sleeping off the drunk at Police Headquarters, Johnson was ready to tell Chief of Police Graham where he obtained the "hooch."

While Johnson was creating trouble at the Hustmyer billiard hall, his companion, Ollie Downard, who had also inebriated freely of the poison, was posing as an officer at the home of Elmer Thomas on West Main street, where he accepted he wanted to arrest the house. A hurry call was sent to police headquarters and Downard was arrested shortly after Johnson was taken into custody.

Wednesday morning, both men told Chief Graham where they secured the liquor and filed affidavits to the effect they had secured the booze from Edwards. Motorcycle Policeman Stethem brought Edwards to Police Headquarters, where Chief Graham questioned him and then placed him under arrest. Edwards at first denied that he sold the liquor and demanded an immediate trial.

Officers in the meantime rounded up the evidence at Edward's hotel on East Main street. Several cases of potent medicine were brought to Police Headquarters on a tray, the assortment including Starland Bitters, 21 1-2 per cent alcohol; Wine of Pepsin, 25 per cent alcohol; Vivo, 24 percent alcohol; Starland Beef, Iron and Wine, 20 percent alcohol. There were also evidences of corn whisky in bottles almost empty and Chief Graham believes that in breaking up the sale of the patent medicines, that a distribution point for home made brew, has also been put out of existence.

Johnson and Downard testified before Police Judge Smith that they had obtained a quantity of Wine of Pepsin, on which the amount of alcohol is not labelled, but which contains glycerate of pepsin, glycerine in sufficient quantities being poisonous. Judge Smith found Edwards guilty and fined him $500 and costs.

The Vivo sold by Edwards is labelled Elixir Calcium Hypophosphate. Included in the array of patent medicines which he had on hand was an imitation of ginger, containing Benzozate of Soda and Capisum. A bottle containing only a few drops of what is believed to be corn whisky, led to the belief that Edwards was handling the home brew.

Unless Edwards can produce an amount covering the $500 costs assessed by the Police Judge, he will have to serve out the time in the Dayton Work House. Papers for his commitment were made out Wednesday morning. In case none of the fine is paid, the fine will keep Edwards in the work house 850 days at 60 cents a day.

County Treasurer J. E. Sutton Wednesday announced that the time for paying the December taxes had been extended from December 20 until January 20.

It has been the custom in this county to permit a thirty-day extension in order to give everyone every opportunity to pay their taxes and an extension until Jan. 20, has just been announced by Treasurer Sutton.

GIRL CAPTURED BY GYPSIES 7 YEARS AGO RETURNED TO HOME

Chicago, Dec. 15.—Hundreds of persons who crowded around pretty, fantastically dressed Rosa Miguel, on her way to her home in Norfolk, Va., in the Baltimore & Ohio station saw no hint of tragedy in her smile—no hint of seven years separation from her parents and seven years of roaming over two continents as a prisoner of a gypsy band.

Reside Rosa was Eli Miguel, her father, who had spent seven years and a small fortune in locating his daughter stolen from her Virginia home by a roving band of gypsies. Little Rosa's years of roaming terminated recently near Phoenix, Ariz., where her band was discovered by a private detective agency and where she was rescued after a brief fight.

Antonio Ynez, son of the gypsy band's king, whom she was forced to marry a year ago, is held today, together with a number of the band pending further investigation.

Chicago has an art spirit mystery which bids fair to rival the sensation caused by the spirit book written by Mrs. Curran of St. Louis at the direction of "Patience Worth." For ten years

Mrs. Emma Mabel Field has been drawing fantastic pictures with what she says is the aid of a spirit. She denies any knowledge of drawing. She says that she simply places her hand, with a pencil in it, on the drawing board and the spirit guides her hand. Most of the drawings are of Egyptian figures. Scientists and art critics are much interested in her case.

SIT DOWN A MINUTE AND THINK

Size Up Your Condition. Look at the Facts Squarely

IT PAYS TO HAVE GOOD HEALTH

Most Illnesses Are Prevented by a Good Supply of Rich, Red Blood Take Pepto-Mangan, the Red Blood Builder

Either you are in good health or you are not. There's no half way. You may think nothing of being a little run down. It may not worry you if you look pale. You may think you'll be all right tomorrow or next day. But will you?

Certain it is when you do not feel just right, you are not right. There is probably something the matter with your blood. And while you can get around and do your work you are leaving yourself open to any of the diseases that are always waiting to take possession of run down people.

When you are pale and easily tired when you cannot enjoy your meals when you lose enthusiasm, your blood needs attention.

Take Pepto-Mangan for awhile. It is a great tonic. It will build up your resistance to disease and you will soon feel stronger. The little red corpuscles are fighters. They battle with disease germs and win out when there are enough of them. Keep your system well supplied. Then you will keep well and you will enjoy life.

But be certain you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for it by the full name—"Gude's Pepto-Mangan." Some people take it in tablet form. It is so convenient. The liquid and the tablets have the same medicinal value. Look for the name "Gude's" on the package.—Adv.

George Bass of Dayton was the Sunday guest of Miss Helen Breckenridge.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Main Street Christian church will serve supper Friday evening at the home of Mrs. David Sides, South Columbus street.

Mrs. George Porter of Lexington avenue who has been ill is somewhat improved.

CEDARVILLE

The evangelistic services are becoming more and more interesting as they draw to a close. Quite a number of young people have accepted Christ as their Savior and have signed cards to join our local churches. On Sabbath some twenty or thirty signed up. On Tuesday night the services were especially for the Civil, Spanish and World war veterans. All World war veterans were to be out in uniform and paraded to the Opera House.

The Boy Scouts also paraded and marched in a body.

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 15 the College basketball teams will be put to the test, when they will meet the Wilmington boys and girls on the local floor. Local fans will not soon forget how young Earl Collins waltzed rings around the Dayton Rival Club boys and brought Cedarville out victors 42-23. E. Wright and Markle two new men played thrilling games also.

The girls also defeated by the strong Y. M. C. A. from Springfield in a whirlwind game have redoubled their efforts and are leaving no stones unturned in their plans for victory over Wilmington girls.

The season tickets for the remaining seven games are now on sale at $1.75 each.

The single admission for the games with Wilmington will be 50 cents. No war tax.

On Friday night the local boys go to Dayton and take on the fast Dayton University five. On Saturday night they invade Cincinnati and take on the strong Cincinnati University quintet.

On Thursday the Orange and Blue Club will give a delightful literary program in the chapel. Everyone is cordially invited.

Xmas vacation begins Thursday at noon. Then many of our students will leave for their homes. This year we have students from Alabama, Arkansas, New York, Pennsylvania, Kentucky and various parts of Ohio.

THOUGHT HIS TIME HAD COME, HE SAYS

Springfield Man Says His Condition Was Alarming Before He Began Taking Tanlac.

"I have just finished my third bottle of Tanlac and have already been relieved of a condition that was getting to be alarming," declared A. J. Killis, a carpenter, living at 27 North William Street, Springfield, Ohio, the other day.

"For two years previous to taking Tanlac I had never been able to work more than four or five days at a time. I had no appetite and actually dreaded to eat for even the little I managed to force down bloated me up with gas and made me sick at the stomach and so short of breath I sometimes thought my time had come. I had spells of dizziness and was so nervous at times I couldn't hold a nail long enough to drive it, and felt dull and languid all the time. During the winter of 1918 I was unable to hit a lick of work and the following winter it was not much better.

"But it's a fact, I haven't had a touch of indigestion since I finished my first bottle of Tanlac. I have a corking big appetite and eat things I never dared touch before and everything agrees with me perfectly. My nerves are steady as a clock. I feel fine all the time and never lose a day from work on account of sickness. Everybody I meet these days wants to know what has got me looking so much better, and I am always more than glad to tell them, Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill, in Yellow Springs by A. Finley, Bowersville, N. K. Bowermeister; Fairfield, Paul P. Young; Osborn, C. J. Logsdon; New Burlington, W. C. Smith.

GIVES HIMSELF UP TO ANSWER CHARGE

Columbus, O., Dec. 15.—Haunted by the fear that sooner or later he would be overtaken by the nemesis of the law, and unable to resist a desire to see his family, Ike W. Arnold, automobile dealer and implement and hardware merchant, of Raymond, Union county, who disappeared on July 17 last, has returned and is now in custody in Columbus, to face charges of alleged forgery and the drawing of checks aggregating thousands of dollars against accounts in which he had no funds, brought against him by the State Banking Department, State Banking Supt. Pontius announced today.

Following Arnold's disappearance, which created a sensation, the Magnetic Springs Banking Company, of Magnetic Springs, Union county, through which Arnold's transactions were chiefly conducted, was closed on August 5 by the state banking department, such closure having been the result of the operations of the missing man, so it is asserted.

Arnold will be taken to Marysville some time today at which place the charges made against him are pending, and where, so it became known, secret grand jury indictments were returned against him, based on his alleged irregularities, the action of the grand jury having been taken at the instigation of the state banking department.

MISS LIDA R. JOBE DIES SUDDENLY

Miss Lida R. Jobe, died suddenly at the home of her brother, George F. Jobe, at 22 West Market street, at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Jobe had complained of a pain in her chest early in the day, but had been able to accomplish her household duties as usual. Late in the afternoon, when resting in a chair in the living room of her home, she was suddenly stricken.

Miss Jobe is the daughter of George and Mary N. Jobe. She has made her home with her brother, the only near relative, for several years. The funeral services will be held at the late home at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Burial will be made at Woodland.

TO RESIST THE ATTACK—

of the germs of Pneumonia, Grip, Malaria, and many other diseases—means for all of us, fight or die. What is needed most is an increase in the germ-fighting strength. You need to put on healthy flesh, rouse the liver to vigorous action, so it will throw off these germs, and purify the blood.

We claim for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that it does all this in a way peculiar to itself. It remedies troubles caused by torpid liver or impure blood. All druggists. Liquid or tablets.

Resinol

"If you want to experiment, try some of those things you talk about. But if you really want that itching stopped and your skin healed, I advise you to get a jar of Resinol Ointment, and a cake of Resinol Soap. We doctors have been prescribing that treatment ever since you were a small boy, so we know what it will do. It is cooling, soothing, easy and economical to use, and rarely fails to overcome eczema and similar affections."

BELIEVE BOMB PLOT WAS INTENDED FOR KING CONSTANTINE

Paris, Dec. 15.—Two Greeks, carrying passports for Lucerne and in possession of bombs have been arrested at Milan, says a dispatch to Le Matin.

It is believed in the Italian city, the dispatch says, that the men plotted to attempt to assassinate former King Constantine of Greece.

Constantine will not remain long on the throne of Greece, says Geneva dispatches to newspapers here. The correspondents declare they obtained this information from "a personage closely connected with Constantine," who is quoted as having said that after a brief interval Constantine will abdicate in favor of Prince George, Duke of Sparta.

In taking this course, it is asserted Constantine will give the impression that he is acting in accordance with his own wishes, and not acceding to those of the allies.

This decision, it is said, was reached upon representations from Demetrios Rhalis, the Greek Premier, who is alleged to have pointed out that Greece would be in a critical situation if opposed by the great Powers.

DRECA HAS REMOVED ALL STIFFNESS FROM MY JOINTS

"I was so crippled with rheumatism, I couldn't bend over to tie my shoes." Dreco gave full relief in two weeks time.

"I was awakened every night towards morning by a severe pain across my kidneys, and had to get up and walk the floor. I took everything I heard of but was growing worse all the time. I was so constipated my bowels would not move naturally" said Mrs. Elizabeth Zellar, of 1007 Link Ave., Springfield, Ohio.

"Dreco has benefitted me so much that I am entirely free from pain can bend and stoop around without any discomfort at all. I can go to bed and sleep the night through and when I awaken am ready for a good big breakfast for my stomach is now in excellent condition and I can eat what I want without any gas forming; my bowels eliminate the waste naturally and regularly. In two weeks time Dreco has done more to restore my health than all the medicine in all my life."

Dreco is made from the juices of twelve different herbs, roots, bark and leaves, which act directly on the stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder and the blood, and tends to relieve constipation, headaches, rheumatism, catarrh, biliousness, dizzy spells, heart fullness, gas on the stomach, and other troubles.

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in Xenia at Sohn's Drug Store.

VESSEL DRIVEN TOWARD ROCKS

New Bedford, Mass., Dec. 15.—Hammered by raging seas and a seventy mile wind from the south-east, a large three masted schooner is being driven on the rocks off Round Hill, South Dartmouth yesterday afternoon. The crew of 15 or 20 men can be seen through the sea and shindrift, clinging to the ratlines of her standing rigging and buffeted by the flapping of her tattered sails.

MAYBE THE FROG HAD REAL FEAST

When Tris Speaker, Les Nuna-maker and others were on their recent hunting and fishing trip at Rice Lake, Ontario, Clay Folger, one of the party, decided to go still fishing and was told that the best bait was a frog.

He didn't realize that tiny frogs were meant, so he caught himself a giant bullfrog and baited his hook by inserting its barb through the frog's hind legs, so that froggie would jump around and attract the attention of the fish.

After he had been out an hour without the sign of a bite a native came paddling by and asked what luck.

"None," replied Folger, showing the frog with which he had baited the hook. "I haven't caught a fish."

"You never can tell," laughed the native. "You haven't looked inside your frog yet."

Facts are Royal

Facts are royal in their authority. No one disputes them without injury to himself. In the old days when a subject disputed any word of the King, he lost his head. The fact today is just as royal as a king. No one disputes facts unless he has in a manner of speaking, "lost his head." One fact that has stood for twenty-five years without successful dispute is the essential truth of chiropractic which is (1) that disturbance of joints of the backbone causes pressure upon nerves, (2) that this nerve pressure causes disease, and (3) That the chiropractic spinal adjustment restores the alignment of joints, removes nerve pressure, and with the cause gone, disease disappears.

Chiropractic adjustments this month are being given with unusual effectiveness in cases of rheumatism, bronchitis, lumbago, asthma, tonsillitis, influenza, coughs, colds and headaches.

THIRTEENTH CASE IS FILED AGAINST TAX COLLECTION HERE

With the injunction suits filed Tuesday by John A. Simisoi and Catherine Hendrickson against the collection of special assessments for street paving levied by the city, thirteen such cases have been filed in Common Pleas Court.

Marcus Shoup filed the first case, enjoining the collection of an assessment, levied against his property on Dayton Avenue, about two weeks ago. Since then injunctions have been filed by property owners on Dayton Avenue, West Second Street, Galloway Street, Home Avenue and Cincinnati Avenue. Although the suits are filed against County Auditor R. O. Weed and County Treasurer, J. E. Sutton, the city is the real defendant in all cases, and City Solicitor J. A. Finney will represent the city in all of the cases, should they come to trial.

STEEL PIER FROM HATCHET PENETRATES MAN'S EYEBALL

As a result of a piece of steel, splintered from a hatchet head which he was using as a wedge in tearing down a fence, striking him in the left eye, Samuel Boots, manager of the J. E. Kelly, farm on the Springfield pike may lose the sight of the member.

The accident happened about 3:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, when Boots was wrecking a fence, and using the hatchet head as a wedge. As he struck the hatchet a piece of steel broke from the tool and struck him in the left eye, cutting and lacerating the eye ball. The man was rushed to the office of Dr. Reed Madden, eye specialist in this city, and Dr. Madden ordered that he be taken to Dr. Vail in Cincinnati to have the metal removed by the magnet. Little hope is felt for the man's eyesight.

THIS IS THE BIRTHDAY OF CATHERINE OF ARAGON December 15th, 1485

Catherine of Aragon, Queen of Henry VIII of England, was the daughter of Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain—the same Isabella who offered her jewels to send Columbus on his voyage of discovery.

Catherine was born in Spain in 1485, and when she was 16 was sent to England to marry Prince Arthur eldest son of Henry VII and heir to the throne. A few months after the marriage the young Prince, himself only 16, died and Catherine was betrothed to the next son, who later became Henry VIII.

The marriage took place the same month the king was crowned and for a few years Catherine was happy. Henry was an affectionate husband until her part in some political affairs angered him. During the first eight years of her marriage she bore him six children all of whom died in infancy except Mary, who lived to be Queen. Because of the ancient prejudice against marriage with a sister in law this royal union was the subject of a great deal of superstitious comment.

It was also necessary to have a male heir to the throne and Henry possibly was growing tired of his wife. He expected the Pope to annul his marriage; meantime he married Anne Boleyn. Finally as he couldn't manage it any other way he himself declared the marriage annulled. Catherine found herself poor and surrounded by spies. When she was 50 years old her health gave way and she died. She sent a letter to Henry telling him she forgave him and ending with the astounding sentence: "I vow that mine eyes de sire you above all things."

BRINGING UP FATHER

Nothing can happen to hurt me
Though my fate may be unkind—
Outside my days look cloudy
But it's sunny in my mind.

TEST OF SUFFRAGE STARTS IN COURT

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 15.—Trial of the suit brought by the Maryland State League of Defense to test the validity of the Federal woman suffrage amendment was begun in the Court of Common Pleas here.

The action is directed against the Board of Registers of the Seventh Precinct of the Eleventh Ward, seeking that they be required to strike from their books the names of two women, one white, the other colored because the petitions do not admit the force of the amendment.

Two main points are brought out in the petition of the anti-suffragists—one that the amendment is not such as Congress is authorized by Article V of the constitution to propose to the Legislatures of the various states to be ratified by them, and the other that it never was ratified properly by the legislatures of three fourths of the states.

Everett P. Wheeler of New York representing the American Constitutional League is associated with the Baltimore counsel of the defense league.

RECIPES FOR A DAY
Baked Ham, Cider Sauce—Cook the ham until tender and then cook in water and remove the skin. Now place in a bowl one cup of brown sugar, two tablespoons of cinnamon, one teaspoonful of nutmeg, one teaspoon of allspice.
Mix and then put in the ham in the oven and when starting to brown baste with one-half cup of vinegar and one-half cup of boiling water.
Bake ham in a moderate oven one hour. Serve with sauce made as follows:
Add to the pan in which the ham was baked one cup of water, four tablespoons of cornstarch and two-thirds cup of cider. Stir to dissolve the starch and then add one-half teaspoon of ginger and one-half teaspoon of allspice. Bring to a boil and cook for three minutes.
Peach Custard—Line a buttered shallow baking dish with sliced fresh or canned peaches. Beat two eggs until light, add one-half cup sugar, pinch of salt, one heaping teaspoon flour and when smooth add one and one-half cups milk and one teaspoon vanilla. Mix well and pour over peaches. Bake in a moderate oven until thick.
Stuffed Pork Chops—Buy as many pork chops as necessary, cut thick with pocket in. Make dressing as you would for chicken stuffing and insert dressing, place in savory roaster with some water and cook slowly until done, then remove. Add one-half teaspoon kitchen bouquet or meat sauce and serve.

CELERY SOUP—For this use tops and outside stalks of celery left from a previous meal. Boil the celery in plenty of water and salt to taste. When done well press through a sieve
